(Fifth Commandment); Nov. 25, Mod-ern Murderers (Sixth Commandment); Dec. 2. The Seventh Commandment; Dec. 3. Stealing as a Fine Art (Eighta Commandment); Dec. 16. The Harpies of Life (Ninth Commandment); Dec. 23. Christmas Sermon; Dec. 30. How to Become Bankrapt (New Year's Ser-mon) (Tenth Commandment); Jan. 6. Put It in the Bank. Splendid music, earnest, vital preaching. A cordial welcome for all.

Attractive Meeting for Men Only. The attractions at the Men's rally tomorrow at 4 p. m. in the Thayer building store will be a practical address by Rev. J. W. Areson, the popular rector of Grace Episcopal church, and pleasing selections by the Kinder currents.

These meetings are held under Y. M. C. A. auspices, and are always en-joyable to the men. All men are in-

AUDITORIUM.

The Spy, With Dustin Farnum in the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Auditorium—Today Valeska Sur-att in Wife No. 2—Four Shows, 1.30, 3, 7, 8.30.

As my house has been burned and I am going to give up farming, I will sell at public auction at my farm, known as the Nathan Witter place, shout I at the farm in its lead, comes to the Auditorium theatre on Monday (1). American's sacrifice of life, and holds dear to him, to save his three days' run. stin Farnum, one of the few pop-stars of the screen, plays Mark Quaintance, a man of and social position, who undertakes the hazardous task of gaining a list of the Teutonic spies in the United himself among those spies beng their names is kept. Then he possession of it and sends it to American ambassador, while he himself is courtmartialed.

The odd feature about this thrilling drama is that it contains all the vigor and excitement of war, without a single battle scene being flashed on the screen. Realizing that the public has a surfait of such views the Fox comsurfeit of such views, the Fox company arranged its story in such mash-ion that it was found unnecessary to fire a single shot during the taking of

DAVIS THEATRE.

Keith Vaudeville and Dorothy Dalton in The Ten of Diamonds, Five Part in The Ten of Diamonds, Five Part Triangle Feature—Four Shows Today, at 1.30, 3.15, 6 and 8 p. m.

There will be four complete shows at the Davis today and there is an excellent bill of Keith vaudeville and Triangle photoplays that has made a big hit the past two days. The headline attraction is The Texas Comedy Four. one of the cleverest singing quartettes in vaudeville. Valentine Fox presents a ventriloquial novelty entitled A Member of the Black and White Club. This act has its own special stage setting. The other act is Berk and Broderick, late-stars of The Lilac Domino, who present a singing and dancing offering. The Triangle feature picture is Dorothy Dalton in The Ten of Diamonds. Again she is the dance hall girl, joyous, reckless, yet with a sense of movel equity. One The Ten of Diamonds. Again she is the dance hall girl, joyous, reckless, yet with a sense of moral equity. One pright, while she is telling her fortune over the cards in a dim corner of the basement cafe, a man of the upper world enters. He makes her a peculiar proposition during the course of the evening. As a result, she is transplanted from the fetid, recking atmosphere of the "joint" to a luxurious home on Fifth avenue, where she is carefully fashioned into a "lady." A Fallen Star is the comedy to complete the show.

Illuctant to deal with cotton and wool as it dealt with food, metals and fuel, but there is reason to believe that if it falls presently to meet the issue it will have a successor that will not hesitate to do so. With a sectional vote almost solidly in its favor at Washing-ton, contine, although richer than ever before, has pleaded poverty on all occasions since the war began. It has helptd government fix prices for other products. For itself it organizes a combine, names its own terms and asks: "What are you going to do about it?"—New York World editorial.

BREED THEATOE.

Emmy Wehlen in Miss Robinson Crusoe a Metro Wonderplay of Intrigue, Adventure and Romance, Feature for Today and Tonight.

The feature production at the Breed theatre today and tonight is Emmy Wehlen in the unusual picturesque photoplay Miss Robinson Crusoe, The story tells of the workings of the for-eign spies in this country, although that is a counter plot, it carries all through the story. The role of Vani Gordon gives an excellent insight into the life of Wall street. Miss Wehlen is seen in the role of Pamela Sayre. Her shillity to portray every envelop-Her ability to portray every emotion, her close relationship with New York's upper 400 makes Pamela Sayre a part that fits her like a glove. Miss Wehthat fits her like a glove. Miss Wehlen's pictures have always been noted for the excellence of the casts by which they are portrayed, and this jatest Metro wonderplay will find this popular artist supported by what is really an all star cast. The cast contains Walter C. Miller, Harold Entwhistle, Mrs. Sue Balfour, Margaret Seddon and Augustus Phillips.

The latest war news in the Hearst. The latest war news in the Hearst-Pathe weekly will be shown, and a very funny Big V. comedy completes Coming Monday and Tuesday, Gertrude McCoy in The Silent Witness, which was declared during its New York run to be the greatest drama since Madame X.

Cotton's Impudent Combine. Under the impression that cotton is king once more men interested in grow-ing and marketing the staple have met LOST AND FOUND

LOST—A leather folding pocketbook, containing a sum of money, marked H, W. Lucas. Finder rewarded for returning to 43 Broadway.

FOUND—Near Thayer Bldg., lady's black pocketbook. Inquire Frank Zukowski, 235 West Thames St., or at Ring's Garage.
